NEWS ABOUT HOME.

—A robin seen Sunday reminds us of warmer weather.

—According to the statute the trout fishing season opens next Tuesday.

—The Free Baptist society give a new sugar party at their vestry tomorrow night.

—The Bohemian glass blowers are at the Opera house this week. Their entertainments are for the benefit of the Grand Army charity fund.

—Louis Gingras, who has been confined to his home since last November from a fall received while painting, will resume work next Monday.

—Postman Bonette fell on some steps on St. Mary's street Saturday wrenching himself badly. The substitute carrier, John Moore, is taking his place this week.

—Workmen are engaged in converting Foster G. Stevens' old stand over Moore's clothing store into two tenements, one of which will be occupied by H. H. May.

—George W. Bonett has bought out Welch Brothers, butchers, on Railroad street and took possession Monday morning. William Welch will remain in Mr. Bonett's employ.

—A grand lodge of the New England Order of Protection is being organized at Burlington today. This order has lodges in about a dozen different towns in the state, including St. Johnsbury.

—A large mink appeared on Main street one day last week and was promptly pursued by men, boys and dogs. It was finally lodged in a pile of debris on the Museum ground and killed by H. A. Folsom.

—At a meeting of the Eastern Star Tuesday night eight new members were admitted. There will be a social meeting of Mystic Star chapter at Masonic hall, Saturday, March 29. Sugar will be served at 9:30.

—Our merchants are bound to keep their stores attractive. E. D. Steele has lately put a hard wood floor in his store and F. G. Bundy is now re-flooring his with maple. A good floor adds much to the appearance of a room.

—The Newport Express hears that the Canadian Pacific and Boston & Maine roads will put a vestibule train on the "air line" route the coming summer. Such a train will run through here and will be thoroughly appreciated by our people.

—L. D. Hazen has logged 18,000.
000 feet of lumber at his mills this winter and says he has never had a better season than this since January 1. Lumber has advanced $1 or more per thousand feet and stocks are said to be lighter than usual.

—The fire alarm rang Tuesday morning for a fire at the depot in the partition between the superintendent's and train dispatcher's offices on the second floor. It was quickly extinguished by the fire company before any damage was done. It is thought that it caught from a steam pipe.

—The Universalist society give a concert at Music hall on Saturday evening to raise funds for a church organ. Harry H. May and Mrs. P. F.
Hazen, soloists, the Cecilia quartet and a chorus of 12 voices, will furnish the music. J. M. Chapman, the popular elocution teacher, will read a few selections.

—The Tarbell Lumber company has been organized at Southern Pines, N. C., under the laws of North Carolina with a paid up capital of $50,000 which may be increased to $100,000. L. D. Hazen is president and C. D. Tarbell of Littleton, N. H., treasurer and general manager. The company own a large tract of Southern pine timber.

—Next Sunday being Palm Sunday the usual blessing and distribution of palms will take place during the morning service at the Catholic church.—The exercises of the forty hours devotion, which were held in the Convent of Notre Dame, closed Monday morning. The devotions were attended by a large number of the congregation.

—The sociable of the Christian Endeavor union at the Free Baptist vestry Friday night was attended by 175 members of the four societies.
Refreshments were served and the entertainment consisted of solos by Miss Goodwin and W. B. Atwood, singing by a male quartet and a fine rendering by Miss Goodwin of the poem, "The Modern Crusade," composed by Rev. A. J. Hough of Montpelier, an active member of the state union.

THE ICE HARVEST.

Cloutier & Hastings of St. Johnsbury with a gang of 25 men are cutting ice on Joe's pond. They get out about 50 cords or 200 tons a day.
More than 1200 tons have been harvested and 40 car-loads of the ice will be shipped this week. This party expect to be kept at work two weeks longer and they hope to cut some 8000 tons. They are cutting for no special company and will sell the ice wherever it is wanted. The ice is of extra fine quality, very clear and solid and is nearly two feet thick.
As it is taken from the pond it is piled up on the shore near the West Danville railroad station, and all persons wanting to see a fine sight will do well to inspect this immense pile of ice.

L. K. Hazen & Co. have sold 4000 tons of ice at Miles Pond to Providence dealers. They have a gang of 75 men at work and will harvest somewhere near 10,000 tons. Besides this there is a party from Milford, Mass., there who hope to harvest about 5000 tons.

The Boston & Maine road anticipate that there will be such a quantity of ice to transport to the cities that an extra train of ice cars will have to be run through the summer or until all the ice is carried to market.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

Longe Brothers & Smythe opened their new store on Railroad street Monday morning. For the present they will close every night at 6 o'clock. After lighting appliances are completed, they will remain open only Tuesday and Saturday evenings. This is a good move and one worthy of imitation by every business man in town. Efforts have frequently been made to have all the stores close on Wednesday evening, but someone always objects on the ground of losing trade and thwarts every effort. Some seem to entertain the opinion that keeping open every evening increases the amount of trade. Is this true? People have just so much to buy and will buy it; if in the day time, not at night. They will not buy undesirable articles simply because the store is open. By exercising a little forethought all can so arrange a time for shopping as to feel no inconvenience should the stores be closed one or more evenings each week, and merchants will lose nothing in trade but gain much in an evening's recreation in the open air or at home. One will not close unless all do. This is a matter that the merchants might well agree on and if they did not want to close four nights then agree to do it for one or two nights each week.

BUSINESS MEN'S ORGANIZATION.

The business men of St. Johnsbury have at last formed an association to protect themselves from the abuses of the credit system. There are many in our town who make a practice of running a bill at a store until asked to pay, when they politely decline and go elsewhere to trade, with the express purpose of defrauding the second man in the same way as they did the first. If these were really poor, it might be an act of charity to give them the goods. But they are not. They are poor because they are too lazy to work or because of extravagant habits. These bills, being too small to prosecute, the merchants must lose. But the merchant must live, and what he loses in bad debts he must make good out of paying customers. This honest man pay not only their own bills but the bills of their shiftless neighbors.
This organization proposes to stop this. At each meeting members who have been defrauded will give the names of such persons and such names will form the "black list," a copy of which every member will hold. In this way each merchant will be informed with reference to his customer and save himself. The constitution will be adopted and officers elected this evening.

An energetic canvass has been made through the week and about 50 of our business firms have joined the association. An enthusiastic meeting is anticipated at the Merchants' bank block tonight.

PERSONAL MENTION.

State's Attorney Dunnett is in Boston this week.

Mrs. D. A. Morrison is in Boston this week after new goods.

Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Lamson are expected home from their Southern trip Friday.

Robert Caldwell, of the firm of Caldwell & Varnum, is spending a few days in town.

Mrs. H. K. Ide expects to leave for Florida next Monday to be with her husband at Pomona.

Misses Edith Hall and May Streeter of Concord, N. H., spent the Sabbath at their homes in this town.

Mrs. Walter P. Smith and Mrs.
Ella S. Truax are expected home from Richmond this afternoon.

Alfred H. Brooks and H. S. Wilder of Worcester, Mass., are visiting at the former's old home in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Howard, who returned from Florida with Mrs. C.
M. Stone, are now in Boston.

Willard P. Wakefield, St. Johnsbury Academy '88, is clerking in the Albuquerque, N. M., National bank.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Plummer of Lake Village, N. H., spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in this place.

C. H. Sage, our first Y. M. C. A. secretary and now a prosperous real estate agent at Denver, Col., was in town this week.

Mrs. C. L. Goodell, who has just closed her church work in St. Louis, and her daughter, arrived in town Wednesday, and will remain with friends for a short time.

About 25 of the Railroad street Baptist people called on Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Henderson last Friday evening. The occasion was the 12th anniversary of their marriage.

Dr. G. F. Cheney of this place was elected second vice-president of the Vermont Dental society at its annual meeting at Bellows Falls last week.

They meet in Rutland next year.

Miss Mary L. Hosmer whose death is noticed in another column was a niece of the late John Hosmer of this town, and a daughter of Zelotes Hosmer of Cambridge, Mass., who had business connections here in former years. She is pleasantly remembered by many friends in this village, who will be pained to hear of her death.

The boys at the grocery and dry goods store of E. & T. Fairbanks & Co. called on the veteran grocer, George W. Spencer, last Friday night, and gave him a pleasant surprise in honor of his birthday. The party was planned by Mrs. Spencer who gave the guests an excellent supper.
Instrumental music and a delightful time followed.

H. C. Belden of Minneapolis, a former well-known St. Johnsbury lawyer, was recently chosen on a committee to draft a constitution for establishing a state association of Minnesota Vermonters. This town has sent so many of her best men to Minneapolis that the new association might well be called the Minnesota St. Johnsbury men instead of Minnesota Vermonters.

RELIGIOUS NEWS.

Rev. J. F. Whitney, formerly of St.
Johnsbury East, resigned his pastori-ate at Jamaica, to take effect May 1.

Rev. S. L. Bates, formerly Congregational pastor at Newbury, has been called to the Second Congregational church at Brookfield.

Rev. M. C. Carl exchanged pulpits with Rev. R. J. Christie of Shel-field last Sunday.—Rev. J. C. Bodwell of Lyndonville preached at the North church Sunday morning and evening.

Rev. D. C. Ferris of West Barnet will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday. This society has been without a pastor for some time but hopes to have preaching services every three weeks.

Rev. Charles A. Savage of Enfield, Mass., has received and accepted a call to the Congregational church at Orange Valley, N. J., to succeed Rev.
Dr. J. E. Rankin. He will begin his labors at Easter. Mr. Savage was an Academy teacher here about 15 years ago and Dr. Rankin is a brother of the late A. E. Rankin of this place.

DARTMOUTH COLLEGE NOTES.

The social features of class day were at Dartmouth will be abandoned this year.

The April Cosmopolitan contains an able article from Prof. A. S.
Hardy's pen.

At the preliminary trial of speakers from the senior class which occurred last Saturday, O. D. Mathewson of Wheelock was one of the three elected.

At the annual prize speaking contest of the Greek letter societies which took place last week, E. K. Hall, Academy '88, won the fourth Delta Kappa Epsilon prize and L. E. Pat-ridge of Pencham the second Phi Delta Theta prize.

The prospect for a new Y. M. C. A. building the coming year seems much brighter. The trustees desire to erect a building to cost not less than $15,000. About two-thirds of this amount has been pledged but about beused till the whole amount is raised.
President Bartlett took a short trip last week for the purpose of raising the remainder.

AT THE ACADEMY.

Quincy Blakely '90 has gone home on account of sickness. He hopes to be back next term.

Regular practice has been begun by the battery and other aspirants for positions on the Academy base ball team in the gymnasium.

The membership of the Adelpian society is about 50, rather than 60 as was printed in last week's Caledonian. The Athenian society has about the same number.

The winter term closes on Thursday, April 3, and the spring term opens Tuesday, April 15. The annual exhibition of the Adelpian and Athenian societies will be held next Thursday evening.

C. H. Willey of Barton Landing, Academy '87, has been re-elected to the editorial board of the Dartmouth.
Mr. Willey also sings second bass in the glee club. C. L. Kemp of East Corinth, Academy '87, sings first tenor.

A competitive reading match will be held before the faculty tomorrow afternoon to select the speakers for the middle and junior prize exhibition.
Six will be chosen from the middle class and four from the junior class, including an equal number of ladies and gentlemen. These contestants will participate in the exhibition which will be held in commencement week.

The following contests have been arranged by the students for field day: Mile walk, throwing hammer, 50 yards' dash, putting shot, high kick, half mile run, standing high jump, three-legged race, throwing base-ball, 100 yards' dash, standing broad jump, 220 yards' dash, running high jump, potato race, 120 yards' hurdle race, running broad jump, mile run and knapsack race.
In due time the prize for each contest will be announced.

At the regular meeting of the Athenian society last Saturday evening the following officers for next term were chosen: President, Carrie Braley; vice president, Mary Putney; secretary, Maude McLeod; assistant secretary, Mary Ide; second director, Caroline Ely; third director, Mabel Carpenter. The meetings of the Athenian during the past term have been very successful, and many new members have joined. At a meeting of the society called Tuesday morning Miss Braley resigned as president for next term and Miss Hattie Baxter was elected.

A new feature at the Adelpian society meeting last Saturday night was the toasts. Although a new experiment yet it was very successful.
Mr. Jones was toastmaster and the following toasts were given: "The Faculty," W. H. Hastings; "The Ladies," Roland Stevens; "Base Ball," Captain J. H. Brooks; "Class of '90," William Gibbon; "The Present Administration," O. M. W.
Sprague; "The Coming Administration," A. B. Carr; "Class of '91," A.
B. Hulbert; "Our Next Field-Day," J. K. Lord; "Our Next Governor," A. L. Sherman; "Class of '92," W. L.
Shattuck; "Our Adelpian," A. B.
Wilmut.

OUR DIALECT STORY.

A Southern dialect story entitled "Aunt Susan Lyndonwood Entertains the Minister," has been written for the Caledonian and is printed on our second page. The story is of local interest, as the writer is William Gibbon, an Academy student whose home is in western Mississippi.
Many of the incidents related in the story have been drawn from the writer's observation, while the characters are faithfully sketched from life, some of the personages being connected with Mr. Gibbon's own household.

THE COUNTY LISTERS' MEETING.

A meeting of the listers of Caledonia county was held here last week, nearly every town being represented.
J. Stanton of Danville was elected chairman and E. L. Hovey of St.
Johnsbury secretary. After some discussion it was decided to leave local bank stock with the local listers for appraisal at its cash value. Live stock and other property were fixed as follows: Oxen, 2½ cents a pound; 3-year-old steers, 2 cents; 2-year-old cattle, $12 each; 1 year-old cattle, $7 each; cows, $23; 3-year-old colts, $75; 2-year-old, $50; 1-year-old, $30; sheep, $3.50; wool, 22 cents a pound; hens, 40 cents; swine, 3½ cents; bees, $4 a swarm; hay, $6.

A NOVEL LIQUOR CASE.

There was an interesting liquor case tried here last week, involving the sale of Jamaica ginger. H. C.
Dickerman, a Lyndon farmer, went into L. D. Stiles' store at the Centre last week Tuesday and bought a bottle of Jamaica ginger of a Mr.
Darling who happened to be in the store. The next day he went into Stiles' store and bought four more bottles of the clerk, Mr. Heath. The same afternoon Mr. Dickerman returned to the store and helped himself to four more bottles, saying he would pay for all he had bought in wood. The police arrested Dickerman for intoxication and he disclosed that he got intoxicated on Jamaica ginger bought at L. D.
Stiles' store. The police visited the store Thursday morning and seized 33 bottles of Jamaica ginger, put up in the form of pocket flasks and labeled "Perfection Ginger." Mr.
Stiles was brought before Justice Nichols Thursday afternoon by the state's attorney and arraigned for selling intoxicating liquor and for keeping intoxicating liquor with the intent to sell. He was fined $5 and costs on each case, the whole amounting to $23.46.

The case is such a novel one that it has naturally stirred up considerable sympathy for Mr. Stiles, who kept Jamaica ginger as any other druggist or grocer keeps it. It is undoubtedly true that there is considerable drunkenness in the county from Jamaica ginger and the St. Johnsbury officers were watching for just such a chance as this and then press it for the protection of the public. There is enough alcohol in Jamaica ginger and the various extracts and essences to induce men to buy them for the spirits they contain, and after Mr. Stiles' unfortunate experience our merchants will do well to look out more carefully and see to whom they sell their bitters, extracts and essences.

W. C. T. U. MONTHLY MEETING.

The large number of ladies present at the meeting of the W. C. T. U. last Tuesday afternoon shows the increasing interest in the work which the union is trying to do. This interest is largely due to the very valuable series of papers on topics connected with the temperance work which have been prepared by the ladies to whom these topics were assigned at the beginning of the year.
The topic on elder making and drinking was conducted by Mrs. A. B.
Mathewson and in her paper she showed that cider as a beverage was harmful to the human system. A discussion followed illustrating the fact that cider is less used as a beverage now than a decade ago and that public sentiment is turning in favor of temperance. The temperance work lately done at Woodville was approved, as was also the action of the woman's board of foreign missions in petitioning our government to prohibit the exportation of any intoxicating liquor to Africa.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

An extra concert in the members' course comes this evening in the Association hall. It is arranged by Alfred H. Brooks, formerly of St.
Johnsbury, assisted by H. S. Wilder of Worcester, Mass., and home talent.
Members with one friend will be admitted by showing their ticket at the door. The program will consist of vocal and instrumental solos, duets and quartets. The local talent consists of Misses Alice Hall and Helen Brooks, Mrs. J. H. Humphrey and Mahogany quartet.

PENSIONS.

These pensions have been recently granted through Dennis E. May's agency: James H. Guthrie, McIn-does, original $6 per month, arrears $484; Charles H. West, St. Johnsbury, increase $4 to $8; George A.
Stickney, St. Johnsbury East, increase $4 to $12; George H. Tisdale, St. Johnsbury, increase $4 to $6; D.
A. Pike, St. Johnsbury, original at $6, arrears $114; C. P. Carpenter, St. Johnsbury, restoration at $4 to Nov. 27, 1889, and then $6 per month, arrears $1200.

NEW MILEAGE TICKETS.

At a meeting of the Concord & Montreal directors Tuesday it was voted to issue transferable mileage tickets, good on and after April 1.
This move is one that will be highly appreciated by every one in this community who wants to travel on that road but could not use a mileage before unless it was made out in his name.

BARNET.

Mrs. H. J. Warden is improving daily.

Elijah J. Smith has been granted a pension.

E. J. Stuart and wife from Boston are stopping at Brock's hotel.

Miss Minnie Phelps from Ontario, Can., delivered an interesting lecture here Sabbath evening.

The creamery meeting was well attended on Saturday evening and a good degree of enthusiasm was manifested.

Fred Stanley leaves this week for Spokane Falls, Wash., having a business prospect which he considers better than making pulp. The mill, we understand, will be run by other parties.

THE TOWNS AROUND.

WEST BURKE.

Mrs. P. J. Cowles of Richford is visiting at the parsonage.

Mrs. L. M. Buswell is visiting her uncle, N. Hoyt, at South Albany.

Emily Densmore returned to her school work at Montpelier on Tuesday.

Lumbermen are coming out of the woods. They report a good winter's work.

Mr. and Mrs. George Davis spent the Sabbath in town, also Mrs. John McLellan.

Mrs. Jonathan Powers is very sick.—John Forrest is improving.— Mrs. George Powers seems to be gaining.

EAST BURKE.

Bert Jenkins of Claremont, N. H., is visiting in town.

Rev. J. E. Farrow and family arrived here Tuesday evening.

Dr. H. N. Burton preached at the Congregational church Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston will not work at Mt. View farm as reported last week.

Quite a number of singers from this town attended the musical convention at East Lyndon last week.

About 20 ladies of the Methodist aid society of Lyndonville spent Saturday afternoon and evening with Mrs. N. L. Parker.

CABOT.

The sick people of this place are gaining slowly.

The Epworth league had a social gathering at the hotel last week.

Jasper Gerry of South Hadley, Mass., has been in town the past week.

The Christian Endeavor society have a sugar party and literary entertainment Thursday evening at the vestry.

Mrs. Charles Fisher, who has been at Barre with her son, Fred, during the past six or seven months, has returned home.
